

GORDON KLIMEK

Gordon Klimek was born in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. After Grade 12 graduation, he worked for an automotive parts wholesaler in Prince Albert for four months, followed by two years with the Prince Albert City Police.

In the fall of 1967, Gordon moved to Saskatoon for employment with Pendlebury Customs Brokers where his duties were mainly in accounting. Within two years, the business was sold to Percy H Davis Customs Brokers.

With the retirement of Bill Pendlebury, Gordon became more involved in the brokerage business and completed the requirements to become qualified in the customs brokerage business in 1970. In 1973, he completed a two-year qualification course offered by the Canadian Institute of Customs House Brokers.

Through the years, Gordon held positions as office manager and branch manager with Percy H Davis Limited and after 35 years of employment, he retired in June 2003.

In the fall of 2005, Gordon returned to Percy H Davis Limited on a part-time basis as an account executive and assistant branch manager, retiring permanently on June 15, 2015.

During his career, Gordon was a member of the Saskatoon Optimist Club and the Saskatoon Transportation Club. He was also a director of New Community Credit Union and a volunteer at several major sporting events.

Gordon is happily married to Bonnie.
